THE MANILA INQUISITION.

The latest news from Manila, shows that the trial and conviction of Dr. RIZAL of this city was a "put-up job" of the most transparent and iniquitous kind. Dr. RIZIZ left Hongkong on the strength of what was practically a direct invitation from the Governor-General of the Philippines, who promised him immunity from all persecution and prosecution. He therefore went to Manila trusting that the Governor would could keep this word; but the crafty nature priestly hierarchy which n controls these islands, this Kosciusko of the Philippines insisted on his trunks and luggage being examined by the Customs officers at Manila, in order that no charge could be made against him for alleged smuggling or in any other way violating the shipping laws. A thorough search was made, and every parcel of luggage was so good. But a few days afterwards Dr. RIELL was invited to a dinner given in his honor by a number of friends who admired his disinterested patriotism and believed in his advanced principles, and during his absence, the rooms he occupied were entered by police and detectives and his trunks broken into and searched. The police were led by a well-known Church spy, who directed their "attention chiefly to a certain box, the lock of which, on examination, was found, to put it mildly, in a suspicious condition. It had, in fact, been tampered with. In this box, it is alleged, were found a number of so-called seditious books. —that is, books reflecting upon the religious orders which autocratically misgovern and almost own the Philippines. The auggestion is obvious. At the trial, Dr. RIZAL denied having imported the books in question, or even having seen them before their production in Court. He claimed that they had been put surreptitiously into the box during his absence at dinner, and he asked the Court to call the Customs officers who had passed his luggage on arrival at Manila. request was denied, and on the lying testimony of this clerical apy, modern Judas, supported by the military and police subordinates, the Doctor was convicted of sedition, or its equivalent in Spanish law. Sentence-was deferred, and RIZAL was led to prison.

The hierarchic despotism of the Philippines is well shown by subsequent events The Court which tried Rizal and found guilty of an offence unknown to the laws of any civilized country, but which is kept alive by the infamous Padres of that grossly misgoverned colony. sat in secret session and sentenced this gentlemen, who had been decoyed into the country by specious promises, to be deported to one of those Spanish feverridden islands near the Equator, where the new-comer 'conveniently dies' shortly Cinchona Bark combined with a choice brand after his arrival. To prevent a rescue by public-spirited citizens, as well as to keep the fact concealed from the general public, the authorities sent Dr. RIZAL on board a gunboat on Friday, July 15th, under charge of the commander of the troops in Manils, and it is especially noteworthy that the prisoner [4] was handed over under sealed orders. The man-of-war left the port fifteen minutes alterwards, without a soul on board knowing its destination. At the present moment the probability is that the unfortunate Rizaz, if he has not already joined the great majority under tragic circumstances, is living in some noxious marsh under a tropical sun, where death by fever or poisonous snakes, or something even more deadly, is an absolute certainty, and a mere matter of

In this diagraceful business it is gratifying to know that the British consul at Manila has filed a powerful protest against the outrage. He would have been recreant to his trust if he had not done so. what is the Hongkong Government going to do about it? Here is a man of the highest standing, a resident of our community, a gentleman, a scholar and a patriot, decoyed from our city and sent to a sure and speedy death on a palpably trumped-up charge, and under circumstances which would be degrading to any Spanish that ever existed. The same fate might come to any one who encounters the hatred of the Manila hierarchy. English law Messrs. Kelly & Walsh, Limited. 10 infamously punished. Will it recognize that gross piece of tyranny when advanced by the most corrupt and disreputable organization on the face of the globe? We blush for Captain-General Drapujor. who hitherto has borne the reputation of being the fairest, most honorable and most liberal Viceroy the Philippines have moderately large company attended last night to witness the third variety entertainment of the Stanley Opera Company, which was fairly successful though not anything like what I would have been had the "Old Man Awful" been in his place. Not that he is actually of much use : but the memory of what he was in his early days, and the moral effect of his august presence, makes him as valuable and as badly missed as if his artistic abilities were still great. He is the father of the family, and has no business to be away.

On the rise of the curtain, the "circle of beauty" was disclosed, with Mr. Phillips in the centre and Messrs. Dariah and Nolan as corner men. These two, though not of course so full of fun as Tommy Empson, who is simply inimitable, did their best to keep up the game, and succeeded fairly well. In spite of being both afflicted with unhappy voices, and a slightly lugubrious style. Miss Nelly de Lorme sang "Come back to Erin" in a sweet voice which seems to increase daily in power, and with a touching expression which thoroughly merited the enthusiastic encore that resulted. Miss Ada Maitland was very successful with the ballad "Barney, take me home," and Miss Fanny Stanley was recalled her rendering of a tinkling little song "Pretty pond Illies." An old friend, "Way down the Suance river," which requires to be sung with heart and soul, was beautifully rendered by Miss Cissic Denver, who was After "half-time." Miss Flords Stephenson and Miss Tilly: Lake appeared in a very pretty double skirt dance, with charming electric light effects. Mr. Duriah's small comic sketch "a game of cards." in which Mr. Liddlard and Mr. Phillips took part, was somewhat better than the usual run. Miss Fariny Stanley next gave one of her very own "serio-comic gems," satirising the young man of the period, which met with a hearty reception. Miss Trigge followed with an entirely new and remarkable graceful dance, which scored immensely, as Miss Trigge's dances always do. The next item was not "Good bye Tosh," as might be thought from the programme, but Tosti's lovely composition "Good-bye, summer," which Miss Denver sang magnificently. In fact, but for a slight weakness of dramatic effect in the latter part, which may after all be thought by some an improvement, we should pronounce Miss Denver simply perfect in this item. Miss Maltiand and Miss De Lorme followed with a patriotic duet, of a cheap sort that hardly did them justice. After at nest and figraceful "sand; jlg" by Miss Stenhenson, who is sure to rise in her profession. If her present form is any criterion, the entertainment concluded with a nigger farce "Thompson's dead," which elicited roars of laughter.

To-night the Company will appear in the burlesque "She-c." which we believe is one of their best pieces. To-morrow "Girefle-Girofla." and on Saturday the pantomime "Sleeping Beauty " will without doubt attract large crowds.

WHAT AN INIQUITY! TO THE EDITOR OF THE "RONGKONG TELEGRAPH." DEAR SER .- I cannot well explain to you what I feel : I look up to heaven where the sun and such contemptible proceedings could succeed. The injustice, the infamy in the degradation of an innocent man, becomes very significant if it is employed to satisfy the thirst of priests vengeance, and still more when, in order to seize a patriot, the anthorities avail themselves of foul means and Inconceivable treachery. For a Consul to tell him in behalf of the authorities, in reply to his letter addressed to the same authorities expressing his wish to return to his country, that he could freely do so. Pand directly he acts upon that assurance, to arrest him, alleging completely false motives, is an enormity truly intolerable. But that has happened with the eminent Sr. Rival. possible to tolerate such despotic and dvically beastly conduct? Is it possible to have security of person under such a regimen of moral disorder in which brutal force predominates ? Can there be legality in the acts of a government which, being fanatic, acts without courage, without conscience, and without brains ?

In order to support the priests in the Philippines, who enjoy life and are satisted, and in order to nourish their abuses, the Philippines will cost us many tears. The whole world sees, and all the Dictator Palacio, had not yet succeeded in world can see, that the banishment of this martyr has been provoked by the sensofor domination of the priests. There is no denying that the ignorance of the masses, the selfishness of the middle classes, the corruption of high society, which retards the advance and perverts the good, are not our enemies in themselves, but deceitful forms of them. The true enemy of our liberty, of our peace and our reason is the Catholic Church, or as said by the eminent Gambetts, "Clericallsm." To them, to the fountain head of the evil itself: to the privileged church and to clericalism which exploits the church the fire should be directed, if we wish to be free, great and noble ! J. D. R.

The conference yesterday between the Gladstone and the McCarthyite leaders almost solely concerned the proposals of Gladstone to extend guarantees to the minorities under the proposed. new home rule bill. At the opening of the conference Gladstone asked what prospects there were for the reunion of the Irish Parliamentary party. He was told that the prospects were remote. He expressed great concern as to what the result should be if that end could not be attained. He was hopeful of a solid majority at the approaching general elections. He believed the return of the few so-called independents will not affect the issues. He said the statement of Timothy Healy was erroncous:

private meeting of his colleagues to discuss the Gladstone proposals. It is likely the proposals will be approved all round. With regard to the reunion commission coming here from the United States, Dillon says he fears it will be too late for the work to be effective, as the commission will arrive on the eve of the polling and after the final preparations for the contest have been compicted. The anti-Parnellities, he declares, will be ready, however, to the last moment to attempt to effect conciliation, or favorably consider such attempts should they be made by the Parnellites.

The Graphic thinks the defeat of Tammany Hali is a gratifying demonstration in favor of the dignity and straightforwardness of American public life. It says: Englishmen will watch Cleveland's campaign with cordial sympathy for not only is his tariff policy in accord with England's school, but his party platform wisely condemns the arrogant foreign policy of its

The Chronicle thinks the most remarkable event of the convention was the complete overthrow of the protection element and the reinstatement of the Mills sentiment. The Chronicis thinks the outlook favors Harrison's election.

. The Daily News says Cleveland's nomination was inevitable. It fails to see any great difference between the Democrats and Republicans on the silver question, and says the tariff is the key to the contest. The Pall Mall Gasetit, commenting upon the nomination of Cleveland, says: It is a satisfactory sequel to the nomination of Harrison by the Republicans. In both cases the good sense and good, faith of the American electors caused the best men to be chosen.

The Standard says: "It matters little to Englishmen which party is victorious. The general outlines of the American policy are too firmly fixed for either party to deviate materially from them. There is plenty of sentiment in America, but since the slavery question was settled it does not find its way into politics. "Happily for the Americans they are not now divided by such deep-cutting issues as the Irish question here. It was their turn yesterday to be rent in twain. Let us hope it is not going to be ours to-day,"

The Times says: "It is creditable to both parties that they have chosen candidates who were open and candid in their appeals for support. While there is little to choose on the silver question, the tariff plank marks a distinct Democratic step in advance. It is difficult to predict, but we are inclined to think that Harvison's chances are slightly better and Cleveland's slightly worse than in the last campaign."

BERLIN, June 23rd. The papers here have little to say on the nomination of Cleveland. Editors of various papers who have been interviewed on the subject said they had written so much in favor of Clevoland that nothing remained to be said.

The leaders of the McCarthy faction of the Irish party issue an address to the friends of the Irish cause in America, reclting the attempts to reach an agreement with the Parnell faction. declaring that the coming election for members of Parliament will decide the fate of home rule for a generation, and appealing for generous contributions from America to enable them to make successful contests.

Timothy Healy finds it dangerous to openly appear on the streets of Dublin. He was recognized there on Tuesday and act upon by mob, who maltreated him.

Mr. Ballour has issued an election manifesto in the course of which he says an Irish Parilament controlling the Irish executive cannot be controlled by the imperial Parliament. The system d'allowing the Parliament in Dublin'to manage Irish affairs, while Irish representatives interfere with English and Scotch business. would produce intolerable consequences in both countries. Such a condition would be greatly unfair to the British and cruel and oppressive to the minority in Ireland. . Balfour glorides the acts of the present Government and hints at a reduction of Irish representation if the subject of Parliamentary reform be raised.

The election excitement in England is growing to the highest pitch. The Torles are anxious to make Irish home rule the sole issue and are willing to promise every other reform on the Liberal programme. The events of to-day included the unsuccessful attempts of Henry M Stanley and Joseph Chamberlain to address meetings in North Lambeth and Coventry respectively, and the issue of an address by Mr. Ballour and Sir William Vernon Harcourt. Mr. Stanley's first effort to capture the suffrages of the costermongers in North Lambeth was a dismal failure from beginning to end. At the indoor meeting, which he proposed to address this evening, confusion was supreme. The rough and ready element, which is strong in North Lambeth, had complete control of the meeting, and despite the presence of Mrs.

Mr. Stanley's appearance on the platform was a signal for shuffling and suppressed groaning at the reat of the hull. When he was introduced there was a roar of laughter, mingled with yells. For the first ten minutes he was able to make himself heard, although he was interrupted constantly with coarse and sometimes indecent remarks. For a short time Mr. Stanley maintained his complacency under the fire of adverse comment. Then he became embarrassed and showed symptoms of losing his temper.

The disturbance increased with Mr. Stanley' confusion until nothing could be heard except the hooting and taunting. Mr. Stanley stopped talking and glared fiercely at the mob.

Mrs. Stanley burst into tears, twice rose to her feet and then sank into her seat. Her evident distress had considerable effect upon the shouters and they began to calm down. Before Mr. Stinley could resume his speech she sprang to her leet and cried: "When all of you and I are dead and forgotten the name of Stanley will live, revered and loved."

Her words were followed by a burst of laughter THEATRE and cries of "Shame." The police ejected four men, aid constables were stationed around the TARRY STANLEY'S COMIC OPERA

When order was partly restored Mr. Stanley resumed his address. Despite further interruptions he said apparently all he had come to say. A vote of confidence was barely carried, and the meeting closed in an uprost.

FINEST HOTEL IN THE EAST. (Under the distinguished patronage of the Imperial Household.)

HIS fine hotel is situated within five minutes' drive of the terminus of the Wokohama-Tokyo Railway and is in near proximity to the Imperial Palace, the Parliament House and the Chief Public Offices. There are no inside rooms, thus securing well lighted, ventilated and cheerful accommodations. The Cuisine cannot be surpassed, and the aim of the management is to provide for the comfort and pleasure of the guests. The attractions of Tokio are countless, and the religious and floral festivals being of daily occurrence are to be seen at their best and on a grander scale than in any other portion of Japan. All the noted actors, wrestlers and jugglers make the capital their head-quarters.
